

PINTO AND THE BEAN

THE WAITING PLACE

LET'S MAKE NOISE

I didn't know how this shit went down.
I didn't know what love was until now
I wasted ~~the~~ time to feel alive
And let the world  pass me by...
...A painless way to die.

LET'S MAKE NOISE. SO MUCH NOISE
IT DROWNS OUT THE DEAD SOUND
OF MY HEART. THEN LET'S START
AGAIN.

I walk through this noisy city.
I still can't find the friends that left me
I love it here. I hate it here.
There is nowhere anywhere  anymore.

In a field I was a child.
The sky was mine. It was so beautiful.

REBUILD EVERYTHING

There's a place I used to know
It doesn't exist anymore
Late one night it burned away
There's nothing left today

THEY'VE BURIED MY HEART AND
THEY'VE STOLEN MY DREAMS AND
THE WEIGHT OF THE WORLD
HAS ME DOWN ON MY KNEES
I DON'T BELIEVE IN ANYTHING

Late at night on this hill here
I stare out at what was there
The moon shines down on the debris
The place where I roamed free

GO TO SLEEP...REBUILD YOUR WORLD
GO TO DREAM...REBUILD EVERYTHING

MISS AMERICA

Miss California please step forward
Miss Indiana please step forward
Miss Alabama please step forward
Miss INDIANA, you've won!

We'd like to know all about your values
And your ambitions. What do you hold dear to you?
We'd like to know that your not as shallow
As you appear to be

ON TV IT'S MISS AMERICA
ALL FOR YOU IT'S MISS AMERICA
ON TV IT'S MISS AMERICA
ALL FOR ME

I've never been alone. I don't know who I am.
I've always done exactly just the same as everyone
I left my friends to be a perfect housewife
And raise a family.

But I can cook and I can sew and I can clean
I can entertain the guests my husband brings
I can even fake a smile for everyone
In times of misery

WHERE DID YOU GO? I NEVER SAID GOODBYE

WAKE UP

The clock I breathe ticks away the Emptiness that's left of me. The hands of life
Are evil and they've grounded me. If I could wake Up, I'd bust down the walls that keep the sun from here.

I think back to when I had a purpose and a
Master plan. A mission only crazy people
Understand. Then I fell through the cracks.
I lost the sky's embrace full of stars I chased.

THERE MUST BE SOME WAY OUT OF HERE
LET'S GO HOME WAKE UP

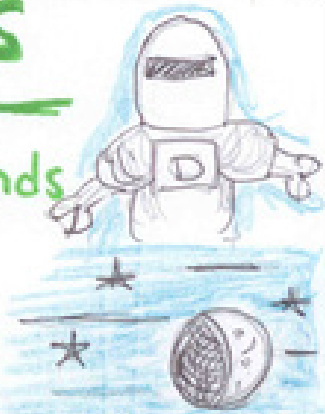

As I walk through halls of my reformatory, they all Talk of pretty lives + futures - things that I've Become. I swallow it all down. I wonder how I let Them capture me.

At night I think of what it might be like to Learn again to dream. To close my eyes and Fall into eternal sleep. A place my heart +
Soul can meet again...for the first time.

ROBOT WARS

Outside this house distorted sounds
Pollute the air
Here it's much too hard to sleep
When metal soldiers speak and
Their costumes shine beneath the beautiful moonlight

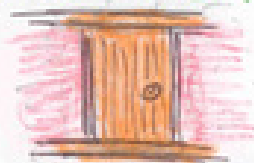

THERE'S A WAR OUTSIDE IN A CLOUDY NIGHT
THERE'S A WAR OUTSIDE. ALL THE ROBOTS FIGHT
THERE'S A WAR OUTSIDE WHERE THE STARS COLLIDE
THERE'S A WAR OUTSIDE. NOW IS OUR TIME TO FIGHT.

Now the sun comes crashing in
The door slowly opens. Our time here is at its end
Let's go to see the world.

Shhh.... no talking now
Let's just out and down the long road.

THERE'S A WAR WE MUST PASS BY

NIGHT RIDER

I'm taking a ride into the night so best friend,
Come with me. There's nobody here to teach us
How to live or how to dream. Let's rev up
This dirty engine + point the headlights at
The stars. We'll blast through the atmosphere
And find a planet only ours... let's go...

I'M IN LOVE TONIGHT
HIGH ABOVE THE WORLD

One minute till take off. Don't look back.
This land is for the lost. They're glued to
Their pretty houses, bills to pay, and dead-end
Jobs. So look up ahead to where the gravity
Won't take us down. The city is dead.
Nobody's gonna miss us when we're gone... let's go.

Love is a drug...
Enter my soul. Swim through my veins.
The earth is getting far... so far away.

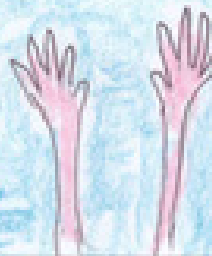

MIDNIGHT MONSTERS

Is it dangerous outside?
Have evil monsters come to
Dance beneath the moonlight?
Did I talk so much I put the sun
To sleep eternally to never again rise?

THERE'S NOTHING LEFT HERE FOR ME
AND IF I GO I MIGHT NOT FIND ANYTHING
BUT I'M WITH YOU. LET'S WALK INTO THE NIGHT
IF SOMETHING KILLS US, IT WON'T BE WITHOUT A FIGHT

It's dark out here but I'm not lost
Crickets sing while shooting stars fall
As people sleep away their dreams
I feel my heartbeat after years of nothing

STRAY DOG

Been roaming around this town so long
I walk through the alleys I miss home
At least I meet friends like me
As the sun sets we share stories
I don't know what I was thinking.

WHEREVER YOU ARE I'M MISSING YOU
WHEREVER YOU GO...

We sit behind restaurants as music plays
On hot summer nights it's our beautiful escape
Then we head back to nowhere again
Under a bridge I watch the rain
And I hope that one day they find me again

WOF!

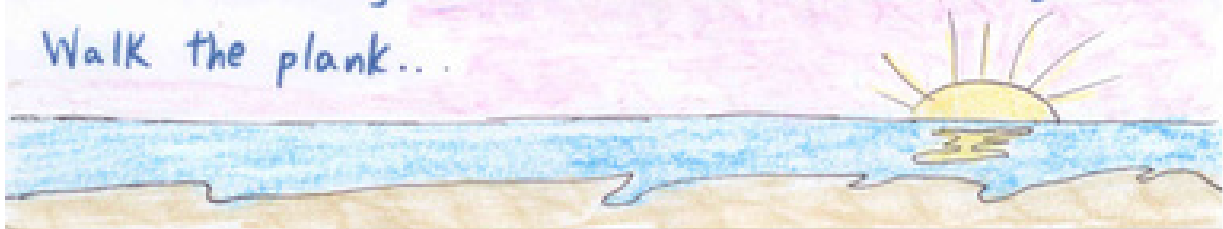

INTO THE OCEAN

I walk in endless circles in the sunlight by
The shoreline. I tell my friends all about the water
But I've never even touched it... while the brave ones
Take their clothes off they have nothing left to speak of.
In the moonlight they walk gracefully toward the unknown.
Walk the plank...

DIVE INTO THE OCEAN. SWIM SO FAR AWAY.
DEEP INTO THE OCEAN. FLOAT TO THE SKY.

The years have passed. The world has changed.
My heart and soul don't feel the same.
I think that once I had a dream.
It must have gotten tired of me.
Now the beach is empty. Faithful listeners have all left me.
All the preaching was in vain. Now there's nothing left to say
Walk the plank...

ELEAZAR

You said it's so dangerous here
 I said come on let's play the game
 You said I can't jump off this train.
 I said be brave and try once again.
 You said why are you holding that gun?
 I said this way I won't feel pain tomorrow
 You said I believe in Heaven
 I said Sure...I will see you in Hell but now...

WHY DOES THE WORLD LOOK DIFFERENT UP HERE?
 WHY AM I CARESSING THE STARS WITH MY HANDS?
 WHY AM I SPINNING WITH MY ARMS WIDE OPEN
 WHY AM I FLYING WITHOUT ANY WINGS?

You said this world aint fair
 I said please don't leave me here
 You said they've been lying to us
 I said don't be surprised...everyone does
 You said we'll be faithful together
 I said listen, be loyal instead
 You said I hate saying goodbye
 I said yeah we had very good times but now,

Everything is gonna be alright
 Everything is gonna be fine...my dear friend

THE WAITING PLACE

We laugh and play in the waiting place
All fun and games in the waiting place

I WANT TO TURN BACK TIME AND RECLAIM WHAT IS MINE
AND BREAK THE CHAINS OFF THIS LIFE...
LEAVE IT ALL BEHIND TO FIND THAT BURIED FIRE
AND GIVE IT BACK ITS LIGHT

Skin is sagging in the waiting place
Hairs grow gray in the waiting place

I'M LEAVING HERE TODAY. I DON'T CARE WHAT THEY SAY.
I'LL THROW ALL MY MONEY AWAY JUST TO LIVE LIKE THEM.
I DESERVE TO HAVE NOTHING AND I'LL START FROM
THE BEGINNING... A BABY BORN AGAIN...
A STAR IS BORN AGAIN... A NOTHING BORN AGAIN...
AND I AM NOT AFRAID OF LOSING EVERYTHING
BUT SO SCARED OF LOSING ME

(revolution...water never stops running)

this is me this has always been me so I can let it eat me alive or I can destroy it and take it to my grave there was no way in there's no way out this is just what I was handed down by a bypassing cloud
